George Petrides

PRESS KIT / OCTOBER 2026

Short biography

Born in Athens in 1964 and based in Athens and New York, George Petrides creates figurative sculpture for public spaces and institutions. His work gives lasting form to history, identity and remembrance through the human figure.

Extended biography

Born in Athens in 1964 and based in Athens and New York, George Petrides creates figurative sculpture for public spaces and institutions. His work gives lasting form to history, identity and remembrance through the human figure. His work has been placed in hospitals, museums, diplomatic missions, educational institutions, places of worship and corporate collections: 31 works installed or held in institutional collections and 9 forthcoming placements across seven sectors and eight countries. Institutions include Tiffany & Co., the Ecumenical Patriarchate of Constantinople, the Permanent Mission of Greece to the United Nations and Aretaieion University Hospital, and his sculpture of Davy Crockett was accepted by the White House as a Presidential Gift in 2025. Since 2022, Hellenic Heads has reached eight cities, including Venice in parallel with Biennale Arte 2024. Its Berlin presentation continues through 8 January 2027.

Education

Petrides studied Classics at Harvard College (B.A., 1985) and pursued graduate study at Stanford University (M.B.A. and M.A., 1993).

Certificate in Sculpture, New York Studio School, 2022. Full-time artistic practice since 2017.

Press contact

studio@petrides.art | www.petrides.art/press/

Image reference and publication

CAPTIONS, CREDITS AND PRESS PERMISSION

George Petrides in his studio beside a sculpted head. Image reference: artist-portrait. Source: Petrides Studio archive.

Press bundle captions artist-portrait.png: George Petrides in his studio beside a sculpted head. Informal iPhone studio photograph; no named photographer. Credit: Courtesy of Petrides Studio.

aretaieia-installation.jpg: Aretaieia at the entrance of Aretaieion University Hospital, Athens. Photograph: Christos Simatos.

Publication permission

George Petrides approved both images in the press bundle for press publication on 19 October 2026. Please reproduce the captions and credits above. For other uses or additional images, contact studio@petrides.art.

Image records and press resources →

Professional CV →

Commissioning dossier →